

Nada El-Khoury was a teacher of the deaf and hard of hearing (DHH) students in Lee County, Florida from 1995 to 2007. She taught at the elementary and middle school levels. In January 2007, Nada joined the team at RMTC (Resource Materials and Technology Center for the Deaf and Hard of Hearing).

Nada holds a B.S. degree in Deaf Education from Ball State University, in Muncie, Indiana and M.A. in Special education (Specific Learning Disabilities and Behavior Modification).

She served as the Chairperson of the School Advisory Committee as well as the school In-service Representative. She was involved in the Master Teacher and CyberMentor programs with the Join Together National Deaf Education project.

During her free time, Nada enjoys dancing and cross-stitching. She volunteers for the American Red Cross as a shelter manager.